2013 Stockholm Fringe Festival sell out artists, Fragility, are returning to Sweden with the improvised, ever changing, something like nothing you have ever seen before.

GAME SHOW

Kulturhuset Stadsteatern, Sergels Torg, Stockholm
Friday August 15th @ 19:30
Sunday August 17th @ 16:15
Tickets from www.stockholmfringe.com

GameShow takes autobiographical theatre to a whole new level. By not inviting one performer to any of the rehearsals for the show, it plays with spontaneity to create an “anything can happen” atmosphere where the competitor has no time to act, but still has to react.

In two and a half years, Fragility has created six pieces of Biographical and Autobiographical theatre, with more in the pipeline for late 2014/ early 2015.

Director James Grice, and performer Andrew Silverwood met whilst studying at Drama College in London, UK, and Silverwood will be joined on stage in Stockholm by associate artist, Kristian Pirotta.

Of the show, Silverwood said:

“Our audiences really should expect something special, climatic, inventive, weird, intrusive, all of the above, or none of it”

“Past runs of the show in Liverpool and London, UK, have involved raw eggs, French kissing, phone calls to parents, embarrassing holiday photos, fire, chocolate cake, water and a pineapple, and at STOFF, we have the opportunity and the space to be bigger and better!”

The show takes place as part of the 5th birthday celebrations of Stockholm Fringe (STOFF) Festival in Kulturhuset Stadsteater, Sergels Square, Stockholm from the 13th-16th August.
